SIXTY-FIVE MINERS AT THE BARNES MINE GO ON STRIKE

MAN REFUSES DOUBLE UP METHOD OF WORK

No. 1 Mines Near Conesville Was Shut Down Friday all Day On Account of Trivial Squabble Between Miners and Operators — Trouble Is Amicably Settled and Work Is Resumed Today.

Because one of the miners refused to work "double" at Barnes No. 1 mine at Conesville Friday morning, 65 of the miners, all of the men employed inside the mine there, walked out on a strike. The trouble was amicably settled later in the afternoon and work was resumed Saturday morning.

According to a contract between the miners and the operators in a machine mine two men are entitled to work in two places or as the miner terms it "double up." An arrangement was made however with the operators of the Barnes mine by which the men could work singly or take care of two places himself. With this system the miner can work faster and get out mor coal, consequently earning more money than if he had another man working with him.

Friday morning the company ordered one of the miners to double up with another. He objected to this arrangement He threw down his tools and quit work. In sympathy with him the entire force of men, numbering about 65 in all, went out on a small sized strike. The trouble threatened to assume serious proportions before the day was over but a conference between the miners and operators of the mine was held Friday afternoon and a settlement was reached The miners it was decided, would have to abide by the contract and "double up" if the company saw fit to order this done.

All the men were back at work again Saturday morning.

BRIDGES WOULD CARRY THIS CAR

Eastern Company Would Run Its Storage Battery Cars Through Coshocton and Roscoe — Proposition Will Be Made to City Next Week By Promoters.

Following the visit of Frank A. McGowan a representative of the Edison-Beach Street Car Co., of New York city, Coshocton is again looking forward to seeing a street car line belting and running through the business part of the city. Mr. McGowan will be back in the city some time next week and will make the city some kind of a proposition. He told several Coshocton men with whom he talked before leaving Friday night that he was very favorably impressed with the Coshocton prospects and put more hope and courage in Coshocton's heart regarding a street railway system than she has had since Breitinger and his company struck the town and built the city and interurban line in the newspapers. This time it is claimed there will be something tangible result from the present hazy plans.

The Edison-Beach car is propelled by a storage battery, and said to be the only successful car of the kind ever manufactured. Mr. Beach and Mr. Edison invented the motor. It is nothing like any other storage battery in existence It is highly efficient. A local man who followed the work of the Edison-Beach car closely for the last several years, says it is capable of running from 135 to 155 miles on one charge. The lightness of the car makes it especially adapted to the needs of Coshocton with the inadequate bridge accomodations across the streams This particular type of car weighs only 300 pounds, without passengers, while the regular trolley car weighs between 800 and 1 000 pounds This makes it possible for the car to cross the bridges over the Tuscarawas and Walhonding rivers with perfect safety while the heavier trolley cars would need a much more substantial structure to insure safety to the passengers

The cost of installing the system and maintaining it is said to be from between one third to one half lower than the trolley car system With the Edison-Beach car no poles, wires, trolley wires or third rail is needed The whole system is the car and a common street railway track

The local man who is thoroughly acquainted with the make of car, being a mechanical engineer says that the cars are being run with great success in New York city. Almost all the cross town lines are using this type of car

It is the plan of Mr McGowan to interest a small amount of local capital in the company. The majority of the money however will be put up by foreign financiers interested in the car. No bonus will be asked of the city, says Mr. McGowan, but a straight business proposition will be made.

A straight five cent fare will be charged in the city and the best of service will be given, that is of course, if the system is installed. It is the tentative plan to run cars in both directions at 20 minute intervals, giving service equal to any city of the size in the state.

The line, as now planned, will start in Roscoe. After crossing the bridges it will go up Sycamore to Third and out Third to Main; east on Main to Chestnut and the glass plant; a branch will be made at Main and Sixth streets, out Sixth to the Wheeling passenger station and east on Orange to the Novelty plant, Beach company, piano factory and paper plant. Another branch will start off the Orange street line out to Kenilworth through the southeastern portion of the city and around by the Otsego road to the Clow plant and the south section of the city.

The cars are small but neat and durable Each car carries between 30 and 40 passengers. Trailers may be attached to the cars, it is said, the motors being powerful enough to carry from 1 to 3 extra cars. At mornings and noons trailers would be attached in order to accommodate the rush of factory workers to and from work.

It is said that three passengers, two from Coshocton to Roscoe and one from Roscoe to Coshocton, would be enough to pay the expense of the car's running that far.

The prospects for this line are the most rosy that Coshocton has listened to for years and the proposition that will be made the city is being awaited with interest.

RAIN AGAIN SPOILS FUN FOR GIANTS & ATHLETICS

Players Are Getting Stale Because Of Too Much Rest

Players Will Claim Share of Money From Motion Picture Rights.

BULLETIN.

Philadelphia, Oct. 21.—The Athletics-Giants game for the world's championship scheduled for today was officially declared off at 8:45 a. m. because of rain and wet grounds.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 21—The weather hoodoo was again on the job today to disappoint the fans who are eagerly anticipating the fourth clash between the New York Giants and the Philadelphia Athletics in the series for the world's championship. Rain fell heavily during the forenoon and conditions were such that it was unofficially announced early in the day after an inspection that Shibe park was a veritable swamp. The grounds were ankle deep with mud and water and there were no signs of a let-up in the rains steadly downpour.

Following the instructions issued by the national commission before it left for New York last night, the members of the umpiring corps went to Shibe park between 7 and 8 o'clock and viewed the field. They couldn't see a chance to play today and frequently said so.

The idleness had begun to pall upon the members of both teams. All of the players are thoroughly rested and the danger now looming up is that too much rest may cause some of the players to turn stale. Their interest dulled by successive days of disappointment lethargy has settled on the fans and today even the Snodgrass-Baker spiking incident came in for but desultory discussion

Manager McGraw planned this morning to allow his team to desert Quakertown for the week and returning from New York Monday.

"Rain today was certainly a hard blow," said Connie Mack, manager of the Athletics. "Saturday is always a good baseball day in Philadelphia and pleasant weather today would have brought out a record crowd. The members of the Athletics are in fine shape for the fourth game and they feel no fears as to the outcome. The enforced rest has now given us a full and fit pitching staff."

The same conditions apply to the Giants. McGraw today had Mathewson, Marquand and Ames at his disposal to pick from to take the mound in the next game.

With the lull in interest betting has reached a standstill, although the Athletics are still 2 to 1 favorites for the outcome of the series.

Prospects of another sensation is threatened over the moving picture rights loomed larger today. Members of both teams are in arms today prepared to enforce what they deem their rights to a share of the enormous receips that the pictures will draw. Reports that a Chicago firm cleared up $100,000 from last year's moving pictures have stirred up both aggregations to the boiling point In consequence of conferences held between Christy Mathewson, of the Giants and representatives of the Athletics, formal demand probably will be made to the national commission that a percentage of the profits be turned over to the players. In lieu of this, the players will like an explanation as to where the receipts really go and if they are not satisfied with the arrangement they declared that there would be no posing for the film experts on their part.

MAN'S BRAINS ARE SPILLED ON TRACK

No. 44, Due in Coshocton Early in Morning Hits Uhrichsville Man Saturday — Stepped From Behind Freight Train.

Stepping from behind the end of a freight train which had just passed by him, a man named Bruckston stepped directly in the path of west bound passenger train No. 41 at Uhrichsville early Saturday morning and was instantly killed. His brains were scattered along the track, the head being bursted wide open by the train. He was pitched to the side of the track. No. 14 passes through Coshocton at 1:53 am.

Bruckston and his son were on their way to work in the Seneca mines The freight train, east bound, was going over the crossing. The two men waited until it had passed. Not seeing the approaching passenger train Bruckston started across the track directly in front of the fast moving train. He was struck in the head.

His son called aid and the dead man was taken to his home where the body was prepared for burial.

Bruckston is about 65 years old He leaves a large family who live in Uhrichsville.

LABOR LEADER DITCHES MYERS

Throws Over Late Favorite and Takes Up Marshal As His Man.

A sensation was caused in labor circles Saturday morning when it became noised about that Arthur Muhleman had resigned as a member of the campaign committee of Trades Council, which is boosting the candidacy of Joe L. Myers for delegate to the constitutional convention, and switched to Allen Marshall.

From what can be learned it appears that A. J. Ogle, one of the original members of the committee to boost the Myers campaign, resigned last week because he became convinced that Myers was not the man to be the candidate of the laboring man; Muhleman who is a prominent glass worker, was named in his place.

And now Muhleman gets off and comes out boldly for Marshall

The result is a split in the Myers vote among the laboring men where it was planned to have solid support. The Marshall leaders are jubilant and say their man is as good as elected.

The Muhleman statement is as follows:

To the members of the Central Trades and Labor council and the public in general:

Having been elected at the last meeting of the Central Trades & Labor Council as a member of the campaign committee for the candidate for delegate to the constitutional convention, and not wishing to be misunderstood I make the following statement:

I have resigned from this committee and given as my reason the fact that I cannot conscientiously serve two masters. After carefully studying the platform of Mr. Marshall and what he stands for and also the one published by the Pomona Grange and the Central Trades & Labor Council I find that the platform of Mr. Marshall is the only one that I CAN and WILL support.

(Signed) Arthur H. Muhleman.

CITIZENSHIP WANTING IN PORTO RICO

Porto Ricans Should Govern Themselves Says G. V. Dominquez

Lake Mohonk, Oct. 21.—The Hon. George V. Dominguez, judge of the Humanco district court, Porto Rico, presented an appeal for citizenship on behalf of the people of Porto Rico in his address delivered here today before the Lake Mohonk Conference of Friends of the Indian and Other Dependent Peoples The judge reviewed the political status of Porto Rico pointing out his reason for believing Porto Ricans as a nation should become the administrators of their own affairs and terminated with a strong appeal to the patriotism of his hearers for the advocated legislation. Judge Dominguez said in part:

"The five main grievances entertained by the people of Porto Rico are: First, lack of American citizenship; second, encroachment of the executive upon the legislative branch of the government; third, lack of an elective senate; fourth, control of the executive, or in other words lack of self-government, and fifth, indefiniteness of the political status of the island.

"We Porto Ricans want to be citizens of the United States, we want to be like you; as you are, full fledged citizens. Your flag can only wave over free people and American citizens and we demand that this right be granted forthwith, as a token of friendship and justice.

"You all know the feeling aroused in this country by the newly started movement for the direct election of United States senators. Even now your senators are chosen by the indirect vote of the people through their direct representatives. But none is appointed by the president of the republic nor by the state governors. Why should our senators, that is to say, the members of the so-called executive council not be chosen by the will of the people? I submit to you that you would be more ready to sever the loving knots that tie this group of powerful states, or gayly attend a new Boston Tea Party, at any time than relinquish into strange hands, no matter how respected, the sacred right of self representation.

"We want to be Americans But free, self governed and self supporting.

"Small as we are the American occupation of our island marks an epoch in the political history of this side of the world. Porto Rico is the advance post of the United States in their peaceful war for commercial and political preeminence in America. If you treat Porto Rico rightfully and make of us contented happy American citizens and bestow upon us the fullest self-government, you will eventually become the mightiest among the mighty nations of the world. The prejudices entertained by other American nations will be banished and the justice done to Porto Rico will be returned to you in the appreciation, the confidence, and the love of the rest of the new world."

Judge Dominquez asked the passage of the following resolution

"To declare that self government be forthwith be granted to the people of Porto Rico and that collective citizenship be immediately bestowed upon them."

Portugal Republic Threatened by an Outbreak of Anarchy

Lisbon Under Martial Law and Ministers Attacked by Mob — Cabinet Resigns and Chaos Reigns Today

Lisbon, Oct. 21—Portugal's new republican government was today threatened with the gravest crisis which it has faced since the overthrow of King Manuel and the monarchy.

Following the resignation of President Manuel De Arriaga's cabinet, rioting broke out which held the city in a grip of terror all night.

Troops patrolled the streets today and martial law practically prevailed. The chamber of deputies held an all night session to deal with the situation.

Ex-Minister Almedia was mobbed in the streets and narrowly escaped death. He was rescued by the military guard and escorted to his home after he had been injured by flying missiles.

Scores were wounded by flying missiles or trampled by the horses of the republican cavalry which charged through the streets after the police had admitted their inability to disperse the mobs.

Emboldened by the uprising and general disorder monarchist agents distributed vast quantities of seditious literature calling upon the people to arise against the government. The influence of the Roman Catholic church was also exerted against the present regime.

Machine guns were placed about the national palace and the mobs were menaced with bombardment. The hospitals were filled with wounded.

The government was also faced with mutiny on the part of the Royalist sympathizers among the soldiers in the barracks. It was decided to resort to the strenuous measures to put down the uprising.

Preacher Hung in Effigy at Church

Coil Seems to Tighten Around Rev. Richison for Murder of the Girl He Evidently Betrayed.

Boston, Oct. 21—The Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson was hung in effigy today in Hyannis, the home town of the pretty music student, Avis Linnell. Indignation in the town is intense against the former pastor of the Baptist church. Although hundreds of people, including his former parishioners, saw the effigy, they made no attempt to take it down. The body hung from the limb of a huge elm tree in the yard of the First Baptist church of which the Rev. Mr. Richeson was pastor. It was fully dressed in a derby hat, white collar, black Prince Albert coat, corduroy trousers and high black shoes. Pinned to the coat was a large placard bearing the name "The Rev. Richeson."

Nailed to the foot of the tree was a large square board with the words in black paint "Guilty, Read Luke 17-2"

Chapter 17, verse 2 of St. Luke, reads:

"It were better for Him that a millstone were hanged about his neck and he cast into the sea than that he should offend one of these little ones."

Pinned to this board was a small bit of white paper which was printed:

"This is no reflection on the church. This effigy will be burned on the baseball field at 10 o'clock. Please let it hang."

Just what time the effigy was hung is not known. People in the neighborhood say they heard voices before the church about 1 o'clock this morning. Even those who greatly admired the young minister when he was pastor in Hyannis did not make any efforts to take down the effigy.

Conclusive evidence that Richeson and Miss Linnell were together in the south station on the afternoon and evening of Friday, Oct. 13, is furnished by Dr. Leonard F. Wolfe, a dentist of Dorchester, who says he saw a couple he is certain were the pastor and the young music student in the waiting rom about 8 o'clock.

"I was waiting for a train to Quincy," said Dr. Wolfe, "and my attention was attracted to a couple who sat directly opposite me. The girl was very pale and my attention was attracted by the way she looked constantly into her companion's face and picked nervously at his coatsleeve as she talked. She appeared to be troubled. Several times I heard her ask, 'are you sure? are you sure?' The man wore the expression of one in deep thought and appeared to be greatly worried."

The police believe that Miss Lucille Zigler who was Avis' roommate at the Warrenton street home will be one of the most important witnesses of the prosecution. Her testimony is regarded as so important, in fact, that she has been requested by the police not to talk to anyone concerning her knowledge of certain details.

FIND ENROLLMENT OF SCHOOL MADE IN '63

W. W. Cantwell Uncovers Interesting Document Recalling to Mind Time When Coshocton Was Mere Village — Miss Pauline Weisser Taught the Class.

William Cantwell, the well known shoe merchant, in looking over some old papers at his home Friday evening, came across the enrollment list of his class in the Sycamore school, back in 1863, made out by Miss Pauline Weisser, his teacher, and who is one of the best beloved instructors who ever taught in the local schools. Miss Weisser closed her long and successful career as a teacher in the local schools only three or four years ago.

At the time this list was made out there were three grades, and Mr Cantwell was then in the Secondary grade. DOUBT CANNOT EXIST

Investigation Will Only Strenthen the Proof We Give in Coshocton.

How can doubt exist in the face of such evidence? Read here the endorsement of a representative citizen of Coshocton.

Mrs. Mary R. Deeds, 248 N. Fifth-st., Coshocton, Ohio, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of kidney complaint after I had given up hope of ever being rid of the trouble. My health was run down and I was subject to attacks of pain in my back and hips. When these spells came on me, I had to stop work, in fact, sometimes had to go to bed and when I was able to get up and around, I felt weak and nervous. That my kidneys were out of order was shown by the unnatural condition of the kidney secretions. Cold weather greatly aggravated my trouble and I also had symptoms of dropsy, my feet and ankles swelling so badly that I could not wear my shoes. A friend, seeing my condition, advised a trial of Doan's Kidney Pills, as they had cured her of a similar complaint. I procured this remedy at Siegrist & Williams drug store and the contents of the first box brought wonderful relief. I steadily improved and soon every symptom of kidney complaint was removed." (Statement given Aug. 27, 1906.)

A Second Endorsement.

Mrs. Deeds continued the above statement on May 8, 1909 and added: "I still feel that if it had not been for Doan's Kidney Pills, I would not be alive today. This remedy cannot be given too much praise."

WITNESS SUMMONED

Senatorial Probers Want Shields to Tell of Job.

Milwaukee, Oct. 21.—A bench warrant for the arrest of Robert J. Shields was ordered issued by the Senatorial committee investigating the election of Senator Isaac Stephenson.

Lieutenant Governor Thomas Morris testified he and four other witnesses heard that Shields was employed by Edward Hines, the lumberman, to "put over" Stephenson's election.

West H. Cook, on the stand, was asked: "Did you tell Mr. Morris that Stephenson and Hines each put up $55,000 to get the election, and that Shields was paid to do the job?"

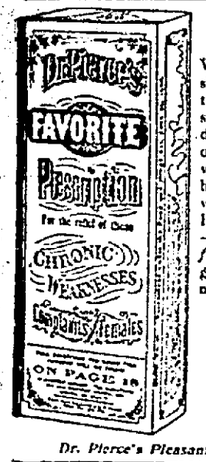

"I didn't say that. What I did say was that Edward Hines raised about $100,000 or $115,000 to put over the election. The statement was based on what I'd heard about Shields."

Woman's Happiness

The highest point of woman's happiness is reached only through motherhood, in the clasping of her child within her arms. Yet the mother-to-be is often fearful of nature's ordeal and shrinks from the suffering incident to its consummation. But for nature's ills and discomforts nature provides remedies, and in Mother's Friend is to be found a medicine of great value to every expectant mother. It is an oily emulsion for external application, composed of ingredients which act with beneficial and soothing effect on those portions of the system involved. Candidate For President of Mine Workers That Will Be His Platform

Wheeling, Oct. 21.—Former president T. L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers of America, who has been announced as a candidate for the position again, said today that a part of his platform before the next international convention would be a demand for an increase in the rate for mining. He said the miners would ask $1 a ton for pick mined coal and 75 cents a ton for machine work. Present rates are 95 cents and 55 1-2 cents, respectively.

Rodgers Slightly Bumped.
Austin, Tex., Oct. 21. — After circling the capitol dome and entertaining several thousand persons with spectacular maneuvers, Cal P. Rodgers, the ocean-to-ocean aviator, sailed away to the south and 20 minutes later was compelled to glide from a height of 200 feet to a rough landing in a field when his engine went dead. Except for a shaking up, Rodgers suffered no ill effects, but several parts of his machine will need readjusting before he can resume his flight.

VOTE FOR HIM FOR CITY AUDITOR

EVAN O. EVANS

Mr Evans has served his first term as city auditor in a manner so markedly satisfactory and with such devoted attention to detail, that he well merits the second term to which he aspires. He devotes his entire attention to the job and does it well. When a city gets a faithful and efficient servant for such a place of importance, it is good business to retain him. It is good business to vote for Mr. Evans to be auditor another term.

Gould and will be named Edith Kingdon Drexel after its grandmother. The baby will be one of the richest heiresses in the country. Mathematicians will probably describe her as a $30,000,000 baby. The marriage of Miss Marjorie Gould to Anthony J. Drexel jr., which took place on April 19, 1910 was the union of two of the most powerful and distinguished families in the country, and at the time was a great social event.

REVOLUTIONISTS WIN AT HANKOW

Imperialists Flee and Leave Equipment Behind—Reinforcements on Way.

London, Oct. 21.—Dispatches dated this morning, received by the Daily Mail, say that the telegraph wires are cut south of Kwang Shui. They also say that the imperialists were defeated in the fighting of Wednesday and Thursday around Hankow.

The camp deserted, the skirmishers shouted and the main body, waving banners, came up jubilant. The rebels captured six wagonloads of baggage and ammunition and at once set about entrenching the camp, which is three miles from Hankow. The loyalists are reported at a place seven miles farther off.

There is a rebel movement afoot to outflank the imperialist troops The Republicans are endeavoring to capture Kwang Shui, as the success of the plan would mean the occupation of the Ping Ching Kwan and Tung Hwang Tied passes, thus blocking the progress southward of the imperialist troops on the Hankow & Peking railroad. The government has ordered 25,000 more troops sent to the front.

The runs on the native banks continue and trade is at a standstill.

A striking instance of the present position of the foreigners was afforded when one foreign correspondent found three frightened Chinese in the center of a deserted imperialist camp near the railway station. The correspondent was besaught to escort them to Hankow. The presence of foreigners is regarded as a protection. Disturbances are reported from many towns down the river.

Mrs Mary Stevenson of Dresden will arrive this evening to spend a few days visiting with Mr and Mrs. B Worth Ricketts on South Third street

MINERS OVER-COME IN FIRE

Rescue Men Driven Back By Smoke In Cambridge Mine Blaze.

Cambridge, O., Oct. 21—When two miners, William Parker and Robert Forgie, were overcome by smoke in a fire at the Black Top mine near Lore City this morning, Superintendent Hornikle and Mine Boss Sneddon went to the rescue, but by the time they reached the unconscious men they also were nearly overcome, and just managed to reach the motor and ride to the open air. Volunteers were then called for and a second trip made. Both miners recovered

The fire broke out one mile from the shaft and was discovered before the day men went to work. The flames are supposed to have been caused by a charge during the night when the burning paper fell on a car load of mine props.

Parker and Forgie had gone into the mine to discover the extent of the blaze, and failed to return. Some other miners had acompanied them, but when the smoke became heavier they rushed for the entrance. The two became separated, and were overcome.

State Mine Inspector Harrison of Columbus was notified of the fire and as Rescue Car No. 7 of the United States bureau of mines was in Columbus, it was rushed to the scene and the flames were extinguished this afternoon. This is the first time the car has been used in Southeastern Ohio.

GETTING TOGETHER AT LAST

Not for a long time have the town and county been so united on anything as they are this day in denunciation of the Meek-Shipps-Ritchie crowd and their dog-in-the-manger methods. Hardly a day passes but that The Age hears from some quarter of the county where farmers denouncing the injection of Ritchie and Meekism into the local mayoralty campaign. There was more than an even chance for the election of C. R. Bell, the wide awake young Republican nominee for mayor, till the bobbing up of Meekism—for all agree that no matter who that crowd might place in name for mayor, he would be but a puppet in the hands of Meek, who would absolutely dictate actions and policy. Rather than engage in the wet and dry fight that this injection engendered, Mr. Bell withdrew from the contest and let them have it out on the lines the Meek crowd chose. They had been given every opportunity to name the candidate for the Republican ticket, and then, when a clean and sterling young man had been selected, standing on a clean and vigorously upright platform, they sneak in because he flatly refused to be owned by them body and soul—and that, after they had voluntarily gone to him and promised him their support for election. For several years this same crowd has been foremost in keeping the town and county apart. They have adopted a paternalism over the farmers of this county, boasting that the farmers would do exactly as they dictated. They have intimidated merchants, they have castigated everyone who does not think as they do, they have rubbed salt in every wound they could find, they have been disloyal citizens, they have poured cold water on every bit of enterprise that has shown its lagging head, they have held up farmers to ridicule, they have blackened the the character of their native town—and now they ask to be placed in charge of the community. It is merely rule or ruin. It is the over powering passion to dictate, the eager energy to compel the other fellow to jump through their hoop. Mr. Ritchie is a harmless sort of gentleman, little known to the common people, aloof from the ordinary citizen; but it is what he stands for that is the millstone around his neck; Meekism, and all that that implies.

The exports of merchandise from the United States in 1800 were 32,000,000; in 1911 they were 2,000,000,000 a six fold increase.

UTILITIES BILL USELESS.

The Columbus Dispatch, an earnest, Democratic supporter of Gov. Harmon, prints the briefest complete analysis of the new public utilities bill. It follows:

"A telephone merger provision is about all that remains of the public utilities bill, as redrawn by the special committee of the senate committee on railroads and telegraphs. This is the general opinion of those who have studied the amended bill. Practically every one of the Langdon amendments for the regulation of public utilities in the interests of the people is gone. In fact the amendments of the senate committee are surprisingly pro-corporation and anti-the-people.

Cities are, in effect shut out from having anything to do with the utilities in their limits. The state commission can annul a council franchise to a new utility if the new utility competes with another. And the state can charge any and every rate made by a city. The house bill is greatly weakened in the matter of compelling a corporation to continue to furnish service at a rate fixed by the state commission. The commission can order continuance but the receivership provision which would have been a club against refusal, is drawn out. The amended bill has no teeth left to hurt any utility in the state.

The senate committee has stricken out physical valuation as the basis of rate determination; has cut out the provision compelling telephone companis to connect their lines; has extracted the provision for the joint use of switchboards, exchanges, railway tracks and wires; has taken out the unit of service clause, which would have compelled utilities to give accurately the basis for their rate of charge; has eliminated the publicity feature of the house bill, and thus gives the state commission the right to forever withold public information and has changed the cou rtappeal section so that utilities may hereafter appeal to the courts on injunction and go clear to the supreme court."

A "reactionary" being defined as "one who would not change existency conditions" Mr. LaFollette calling the president a reactionary shows prejudice, for Mr. Taft has made more effective efforts to improve conditions than any previous president. He is removing the evils which Mr. Roosevelt so ably proclaimed.

The Democratic leaders in congress who were thanked by the president for furnishing the votes necessary to the passing of the reciprocity agreement, now proclaim that the defeat of the past by the Canadians will defeat Taft for re election. They see no "sauce for the gander."

Having disposed of the six million surplus during the regular session the Democratic legislature can, in an extra session called to increase the representation of their party in congress, provide for a bond issue to furnish funds for additional salary appropriations.

The conservatives in Canada in their campaign against reciprocity promised to create a tariff commission like that upon which Mr. Taft is depending for accurate information.

In free trade England, as shown by a report of the British Board of Trade, the cost of living has increased 25 per cent in 16 years. No "robber tariff" made that advance.

In the Saskatchewan wheat country this party opposing reciprocity gained two members for parliament.

If bigots are sent to formulate our new constitution it will be rejected.

Canada having learned from observation of the United States that protection produces prosperity thought it wise to make no hole in her wall.

Mr. LaFollette has not yet explained the refusal of the Canadians to accept the riches offered them in the reciprocity proposition.

The fundamental cause of the present efforts to overturn governments in Europe and North America is the high cost of living.

The fearless candor of the speeches of the president has commanded respect and applause in communities called "insurgent."

The issues upon which the next national campaign will be waged are being made by Mr. Taft.

The president is still seeking "the enemies country"—and failing to find it.

A wreck occurred at Conesville Thursday in which a number of cars were damaged. An eastbound freight train was pulling out of Conesville when a brake rigging dropped down, throwing the trucks of the car from the track. Both tracks were blocked and the Dennison wreck crew was called to clear the tracks.

Edwin McNaughton, son of Dr. McNaughton was the victim of a painful accident this morning. While playing in the basement of the high school he accidentally collided against one of his companions and was thrown to the floor with such force as to break both of his wrists. He was taken to his home on Main street where the fractures were at once reduced.

Work on South Seventh street is nearing completion with the exception of laying brick, and it is now generally understood that will not be done until next spring. Contractor Kissner is confident that he can make a better street if it goes over until then.

BAKER'S HOMER HITS A WOMAN

NEW YORK, Oct. 21—The mystery of the exact landing spot of the ball which J. Franklin Baker propelled into the stands in Tuesday's game with the Giants, tying the score and marking the beginning of the end, has been located. A line drawn from the home plate through first base and carried into the stands would have touched the head of Mrs. Charles F. Hunt, the wife of a prominent physician—and that is where the ball landed. The ball struck Mrs. Hunt in the temple, almost knocking her out.

Don't let your children suffer; if they're fretful, peevish, puny, cross, give them Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, most effective and thorough for children; absolutely harmless.

THREE JURORS SEEM CERTAIN

Both Sides Pleased at Progress of Noted Dynamite Case.

Los Angeles, Calif., Oct. 21.—That at least one of the three men passed by both the state and the defense as a prospective juror in the case of James B. McNamara will be on the jury that hears the story of the destruction of the Los Angeles Times building, is the belief of Samuel L. Vermilyea, of counsel for the state. Seaborn H. Manning, a rancher, who was passed for cause first of all by the state after the defense had concluded its questioning, is the man.

"Manning has been accepted by the state," said Vermilyea, "though he has made admissions which should put him in high favor with the defense. I do not think they will use a peremptory challenge on him. He hass admitted reluctance to vote the death penalty. He has also said he does not consider circumstantial evidence of as much weight as direct evidence. These two things will make him the sort of man that the defense will weigh carefully before they use up one of their challenges The state has accepted him because he appeals to us as very fair."

Guessing as to whether the two other men passed by the state and defense, Robert F. Bain, a carpenter, and F. D. Green, a fruit grower of Pomona, will appear on the final panel, though rife about the Hall of Records, where the trial is held, has led to no conclusion. Both state and defense questioned Bain with unusual care. It was expected that the state would challenge him when it developed early in the examination that he had once been a member of a labor union, but the detailed examination brought out no ground for challenge fr cause. Green's passing by the state was a surprise and those who have attempted to forecast the cause, were astonished when District Attorney Fredericks made no effort to have him excused through challenge for cause. Green's examination by the state was very brief, taking less than 15 minutes. Whether the secret reports that it is known each side has on eevry ventreman has shown that he must be challenged is something that will probably not be known until twelve men sit in the box passed by both sides and the exercise of peremptory challenges begins.

Only six men were in custody of the deputy sheriffs who guard the talesmen through today's holiday. When court completed its session yesterday and adjourned over to Monday, to permet Judge Bordwell to study the record to enable him to hand down his ruling in the case of the two talesmen now challenged and the third, E. C. Robinson, on whom he ruled, and then suspended his ruling while he made further investigation both into the law and the facts, only six men remained in the jury box. On Monday the work of examining new talesmen who will be drawn from the waiting venire, will be resumed by the defense. It is expected that at the opening of the session Judge Bordwell's ruling will be handed down.

The attorneys engaged in the case will spend the time intervening between the sessions in th preparation of evidence. The district attorney's force is working diligently to overcome the alibi which it believed will be one of the strong features of the defense. Since the trial began twelve men have been taken into the courtroom in an effort to identify Jas. B. McNamara. Part of these witnesses, at least, it is admitted by the state will be used to overthrow an alibi, if the defense endeavors to establish one. The last witness was taken into the courtroom late during yesterday's session. The district attorney would not reveal his name but asserted, as he has in the cases of the others, that the result of the attempted identification was "entirely satisfactory."

A conference between Reese Llewellyn, of the Llewellyn Iron work: dynamited sometime after the Times building, was destroyed, and Otto E. McManigal indicted for the dynamiting, was held yesterday in the county jail For nearly half an hour the men talked while Detective Malcolm McLaren listened. McManigal rehearsed the alleged facts in his confessed attempt to dynamite the iron works In the afternoon McManigal and Llewellyn, accompanied by McLaren, visited the plant.

Later McManigal was taken to the district attorney's office. It is said that the Llewellyn case was discussed and that some of the facts alleged in the McManigal confession regarding the McNamara case were gone over

District Attorney Charles M Fickert of San Francisco, was also in Los Angeles yesterday and had a long conference with Assistant District Attorney Ford. Ford denied that Fickert came here in reference to the McNamara case. At the same time he denied a report that the SanFrancisco official had been asked to summon a special grand jury to investigate the illness of certain San Francisco witnesses

BIBLE STUDIES

THE SECOND TEMPLE'S FOUNDATION

Ezra iii, 1-4; 5—Oct. 22

"Enter into His gates with thanksgiving and into His courts with praise. —Psalm c, 4.

The journey from Babylon to Jerusalem required about five months. Ezra with his smaller company subsequently made the journey in four months. We can well imagine the enthusiasm of this company of captives of all the tribes, people of all ages. A few of the very aged remembered having seen the land and the city in their childhood.

Arrived at their destination they found terrible dilapidation. The crumbling hand of time had cooperated with the destructive fires of Nebuchadnezzar's army, seventy years previous To live in the city was scarcely practicable. The people scattered in the country round about for a distance of tewenty miles. First, attention was properly paid to making them selves comfortable, preparing dwellings training olive trees and vines. But shortly after the religious sentiment stirred them to prepare for offering formal worship to the God whose favored people they were delighted again to be.

First, the altar was built on the height of Mount Meriah, supposedly the very spot where Abraham offered his son Issac—the very spot which wos wade the site of the alter in Solomon's temple. Divine worship began, and the Feast of Tabernacles was observed in the seventh month. By the next spring they felt ready to begin the reconstruction of the temple and a start was made by laying its foundations. The enthusiasm of the people for the worship of the true God is noted in connection with this service. A foundation celebration was held, and the people shouted and wept by turns as they thought of God goodness and sought again to apply to themselves the Divine promise. Some wept, perhaps in appreciation of the fact that the temple they were founding would be much less glorious than Solomon's.

The news of the return of the people and of their start to rebuild the temple of the Lord spread amongst the people of the land who, in some respect at least, had been recognized as Israel's enemies. Now, however, they desired to join hands and become participators. They made overtures to this effect, saying: "Let us build with you, for we seek your God as ye do; and we do sacrifice to Him since the days of Esar Haddon, king of Assyria, which brought us up hither."

However, this kind invitation was refused with the answer, "Ye have nothing to do with us, to build a house unto our God; but we, ourselves, will build it unto the Lord, the God of Israel, as king Cyrus, the king of Persia, hath commanded us." Then these people, repulsed, sought to delay the work and to hinder its building. They even hired attorneys to frusthate the matter at the court of king Cyrus in Persia, and through the days of his son, Cambyses, until king Darius came to the throne The latter followed out the original policy of Cyrus and gave full authority to proceed with the work at Jerusalem.

Was the Proper Course Taken?

Many have said that the Jews in this matter showed themselves narrow-minded and bigoted; that they should have been glad to hove the assistance and the co-operation of their neighbors in the building of the temple, and in all the arrangements for God's worship—they should have had the missionary spirit.

Not so, we reply. Their course was the only proper one when we understand the terms and conditions under which God was dealing with Israel. It was not their commission to make Israelites out of all nations; they, as one nation, had been elected or selected by God to establish and to offer the sacrifices and worship which God and ordained through Moses. They were not at liberty to change or amend the Divine proposition and to bring others into the "elect" nation There was indeed a method by which outsiders, nonisraelites, might become Isdaelites—by becoming prosely tse of the gate; but in no other than in such an open, public renouncement of their wills and by devotion to Jehovah could any one become a partic pa'or in the Divine promises made only to the seed of Abraham.

The Jews are still following the Divine arrangement for them in keeping aloof from other religions and by refraining from inter marriage with other people God has thus preserved that nation separate from all others, and He tells us why For them He has a great place in the Divine program They are again to become God's people, God's representatives in the earth, after the Elect Church shall have been completed and shall have been glorified on the heavenly plane The latter will constitute Seed of Abraham and the Spiritual Kingdom of God, while the former will constitute the earthly seed of Abraham, and be the earthly representatives of God's Kingdom to the world

These two seeds are referred to in God's promise to Abraham, saying, "Thy seed shall be as the stars of heaven and as the sand of the sea shore" And through these two seeds, the spiritual and the natural, God's blessing of restitution is shortly to be showered upon mankind in general, under the reign of Messiah for a thousand years.

Spiritual Israel's Policy.

The same policy should be observed by Spiritual Israel—"The Temple of God is holy, which Temple ye are. No outside, unconsecrated stones are wanted in this Temple. Let the world build its own God Himself is the Builder of the Church which is the Body of Christ, the Temple of te Holy Spirit God permits His consecrated ones to be associated wit Himself in the building of this Temple; as St. Jude declares, the saints, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, are to "build one another up in the most holy faith" (Jude 20). Where is absolutely no place for worldly workers in conjunction with this great work of God now in progress Incalculable harm has resulted from the failure to note this matter properly. The children of this world and the children of the Kingdom of God too frequently join, after the manner suggested in our study. The effect always is to bring in worldiness and to give the worldly mind a measure of control in respect to spiritual things, of which they have no real knowledge. "The natural man receiveth not the things of the pirit of God, neither can he know them because they are spiritually discerned, —1Corinthians ii, 14.

The Lord's consecrated people are in training for a throne. Our Father is the great King and He has pomised that The Christ shall sit upon His throne and we have been invited to become parts of the Christ, the Anointed, The Messiah. Shall we wonder that we need training for this important position? Shall we be suprised if disciplines are imposed and requirements made of us more than are imposed upon those not intended for this high position! Surely not!

SEER SEES A GOOD FUTURE

Francisceo Says Coshocton Will Be On a Boom Within in Next Two Years

A glimpse at the future was given from the theatre stage Friday night that a good many people are talking today. It created a strong impression.

At a local theatre there is appearing this week a mind-reader, or a psychic or whatever one may wish to name the art. Francesco is the name of the gentleman and he reads answers to unsealed questions. That is, people in the audience write questions on slips of paper, seal them in an envelope The envelope is taken to the stage and handed to Francesco's wife. She holds up the sealed envelope and the man answers the question sealed within.

Friday night a lady wrote a question, asking if she would be wise to sell her property.

"By no means; not now," came the reply from the man on the stage. "Now is not a good time to sell property in Coshocton, but perhaps a good time to buy. I see advancement in the immediate future for Coshocton. Within the next two years conditions will be back fully to where they were at the crest three or four years ago. The town will go steadily forward. An overcast sky today does not preclude sunshine tomorrow."

An Age reporter sought Francesco afterwards.

"What did you mean" he was asked.

"Just what I said" replied the man with the vision. "I cannot explain it but I see these things before me. I am just as confident that within two years every business house along the street will be enjoying the best kind of prosperity, that rents will be higher, that there will be work and good wages for everybody, as I am that I ate my dinner this evening. I am confident that the lady would make a mistake to sell her real estate today: she can get much more for it within the next two years. There may be turmoil before that time, but the bright days are coming. Coshocton is, I consider, one of the best towns of its size in the state, or was when I was last here, three or four years ago, and I look upon its future as very bright. A turn in the tide is coming as sure as we are talking."

Francesco was here a few years ago and stayed here several months. He was engaged in palmistry and is indeed a remarkable character; his forecasts being uncannily accurate. He, and his wife and child expect to return in a few weeks on a return engagement. Their present engagement closes tonight.

VOTING SHOULD BE MADE DUTY

Republican Central Committee Chairman Gives His Views at Toledo

Toledo, O., Oct. 21.—Walter F. Brown, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, and candidate for member of the constitutional convention, today issued a statement setting forth his views upon important particulars in which the present state constitution should be modified

Brown is now serving his third term as chairman of the state central committee, of which he has been a member for twelve years. This is the first time Brown has ever been a candidate for public office.

Mr. Brown claims the biggest political evil today is due to the failure of the citizens to vote. He favors making voting a duty instead of a privilege by placing a poll tax on all electors who do not vote.

One big feature in Brown's statement is the argument favoring a constitutional provision that give to either branch of the legislature or the governor authority to require the opinon of the supreme court upon important questions of law.

Under this system Brown figures invalid law could be cured in the process of making thus eliminating unconstitutional laws Brown indorses the initiative and referendum but opposes the recall on the grounds that it had not been successful in the west. Among other things Brown favors a smaller general assembly and home rule for cities.

Miss Margaret Fisher will spend Sunday at the home of her parents at Spring Mountain.

BABY'S ESCAPE IS ON MIRACLE ORDER

Mother Instantly Killed When Car Hits Automobile.

Dayton, O., Oct. 21.—As if protected by the hand of destiny, a 14-months-old babe in the arms of its mother escaped uninjured when the parent was killed and three other persons injured as the result of a collision between an automobile and a streetcar here.

The dead: Mrs. Anna Lane, 29, of Decatur, Ill. The injured: Mrs. Joseph Frahn of Dayton; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Frahn of Dayton.

The accident occurred in the outskirts of the city and at the foot of a steep grade. The car is said to have been running at terrific speed when, at a sharp curve, the automobile dashed into sight. The car struck the automobile broadside, before the speed of either could be materially slackened.

The automobile was cut in two and the occupants hurled to the street. Mrs Lane was picked up dead, while her baby was found crawling about the street crying for its mother. It was in its mother's arms at the time of the crash and its escape was miraculous.

Why Should I Use Cuticura Soap?

"There is nothing the matter with my skin, and I thought Cuticura Soap was only for skin troubles." True, it is for skin troubles, but its great mission is to prevent skin troubles. For more than a generation its delicate emollient and prophylactic properties have rendered it the standard for this purpose, while its extreme purity and refreshing fragrance give to it all the advantages of the best of toilet soaps. It is also invaluable in keeping the hands soft and white, the hair live and glossy, and the scalp free from dandruff and irritation.

While its first cost is a few cents more than that of ordinary toilet soaps, it is prepared with such care and of such materials, that it wears to a wafer, often outlasting several cakes of other soap, and making its use, in practice, most economical. Cuticura Soap is sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, but the truth of these claims may be demonstrated without cost by sending to "Cuticura," Dept. M, Boston, for a liberal sample cake, together with a thirty-two-page book on the skin and hair.

"Barriers Burned Away."

The great Chicago fire is the foundation upon which E. P. Roe, the Presbyterian minister novelist, built his celebrated novel, "Barriers Burned Away." The book has been made into a play by George Middleton and is meeting with the same wonderful success that was accorded Mr. Roe's story.

"Barriers Burned Away" will be the attraction at the Sixth-St. theatre Oct. 26 and promises to be one of the most interesting of the present season's offerings at that play house.

The production is under the direction of Messrs. Gilson & Bradfield, who have given it a correct scenic production, and have costumed the characters in a manner typical of the period which it represents. The cast is said to be of unusual merit.

HEAVENLY VISITORS CAVORT AROUND SUN

Two Comets May Be Seen With the Naked Eye.

San Francisco, Oct. 21—According to reports from Lick observatory, the sun is holding a sort of social levee during the present week. Six comets, two of them bright enough to be seen with the naked eye, are now within the neighborhood of the sun. Two of the smaller bodies are paying regular visits in the course of their ordinary orbits. The other four are strangers, dropping in now unannounced and for the first time, so far as the astronomers know.

Of the two brightest one is visible just after sunset, just north of the sunset point. It has a bright head and a tail about seven degrees long.

The second comet is said to be brighter than Halley's. It was discovered by Dr. Brooks last July. It has a tail 20 degrees in length. It should be looked for in the morning just before 4 o'clock, northeast of Venus, the morning star.

At the earnest request of several of our young friends, The Daily Age has secured a limited supply of the famous "cut-out" dolls and they will be given away free to every boy or girl who may bring to this office a class ad amounting to at least 25 cents.

Wants to Be a Power.

Constantinople, Oct 21. The Tanin says it understands that negotiations are going on looking to the admission of Turkey into one of the groups of European powers. The basis put forward by Turkey is that any such inclusion must be on a footing of equality with the other members of the group, and not subject to conditions which would impose any sort of vassalage.

Averts Awful Tragedy.

Timely advice given Mrs. C. Willoughby, of Marengo, Wis., (R. No. 1) prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. Doctors had said her frightful cough was a "consumption" cough and could do little to help her. After many remedies failed, her aunt urged her to take Dr. King's New Discovery. "I have been using it for some time," she wrote, "and the awful cough has almost gone. It also saved my little boy when taken with a severe bronchial trouble." This matchless medicine has no equal for throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by C. E. Anderson, and C. W. Ferguson of Roscoe.

SAGE TEA, USED BY OUR GRANDMOTHERS TO DARKEN THE HAIR

Restores Gray Hair to Natural Color, Stops It from Coming Out and Makes It Grow.

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made a "sage tea," and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hairs before they are fifty, but they are beginning to appreciate the vision of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair and are fast following suit.

The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it can get a ready-to-use preparation called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. As a scalp tonic and color restorer this preparation is vastly superior to the ordinary "sage tea" made by our grandmothers.

This remedy is sold under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.
